The Great Premium Jack,

TUSCARORA!

(Formerly the Property of J. H. Sheffer.)

WILL make the present season at my farm, five miles from Lexington, on the Winchester and Lexington Turnpike, adjoining the farm of Dr. Nicholas Warfield, and will serve Jennets at THIRTY DOLLARS the season, the money to be paid when the Jennet is removed, or FIFTY DOLLARS the insurance, to be paid when the Jennet is known to be in foal or parted with. Jennets bred by the insurance and losing their foal, may be bred next year free of charge, grain and grass excepted. Grass will be furnished two months free of charge, and after that time $1 50 per month will be charged. And they will be grain fed if desired, on the usual terms. I have two hundred and seventy-five acres of fine grass as to be found in Kentucky, and convenient lots to feed and foal in, and every care will be taken of Jennets, and their foals, sent to this Jack, but no responsibility for accidents and escapes, should they occur. The season has commenced, and will expire the 1st of December.

TUSCARORA is so well known as a Jack of unsurpassed merit, that I deem a lengthy description of him unnecessary. It is confidently believed that he is the best aged Jack in Kentucky, and this has been fully tested in the different rings of the Agricultural Fairs of the State before the best judges. He has taken premiums at all the Fairs, viz: at Lexington, Paris, Winchester, the State Fair, and has from a colt born beaten him twice. His blood, size, form, and appearance, eminently place him at the head of all animals of his class in the United States.

Description and Pedigree.

TUSCARORA was 5 years old the 20th of June last, is 16 hands high, a beautiful black; mealy nose, is in fine health, with more smooth, good action than any large Jack I have ever seen.

He was sired by Mammoth Warrior, (the Robt Smith Jack), Mammoth Warrior was by Young & Everett's imported Mammoth, and out of a Warrior Jennet. Tuscarora's dam, Isabella, was by Tippecanoe, gr. dam by Mohican, (a Jack purchased in New York by Samuel Shannon, Esq., and brought to Kentucky), a descendant of the Royal Gift; gr. gr. dam by Achilles, he imported by the Hon. Henry Clay. ISAAC O. ROBINSON.

The Premium Jack,

SHAKESPEARE,

WILL MAKE THE PRESENT SEASON at the stables of Mrs. E. Nash, 4 miles south of Versailles, on the turnpike to McCann's Ferry, 6 miles from said ferry, at THIRTY DOLLARS to insure a colt, or FIFTY DOLLARS the insurance for Jack or Jennet colt, can, by the addition of $10 in the former or the deduction of $5 in the latter, be accommodated. Persons not stipulating the terms at the time of sending their Jennets, will be charged the insurance price. Jennets losing their foals before foaling time, can be bred next season free of charge. Jennets will be pastured gratis, or grain fed on reasonable terms.

He has proven himself a sure foal getter, and his colts are not surpassed by any Jack's colts in the country. He has formerly stood

SOME DAY.

You smooth the tangles from my hair
With gentle touch and tender care,
And count the years you shall mark
Bright silver threads among the dark—
Smiling the while to hear me say,
"You'll think of this again, some day,"
Some day!

I do not scorn the power of Time,
Nor count on years of fadeless prime,
But no white gleams will ever shine
Among these heavy locks of mine—
Ay, laugh as gaily as you may,
You'll think of this again some day,
Some day!

Some day—I shall not feel, as now,
Your soft hands rove about my brow—
I shall not slight your light commands,
And draw the long braids through my hands;
I shall be silent and obey—
And you—you will not laugh that day;
Some day!

I know how long your loving hands
Will linger with these glossy strands,
When you shall weave my latest crown,
Of these thick braids, long and brown;
But you shall see no touch of gray
Adown their shining length that day;
Some day!

And while your tears are falling hot
Upon the lips which answer not,
You'll take from those once treasured tress
And leave the rest to silence—
Remembering that I said to say,
"You'll think of this again, some day,"
Some day!

The Frankfort Commonwealth.

A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS.

J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unexcelled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stirring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate fireside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

THE WEEKLY will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type.

Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per annum.

Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1861.

EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

For Congress:
JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.

Union Democratic Nominations
FOR DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION.

Election first Saturday in May.

JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.
JAMES GUTHRIE.

1. JUDGE R. K. WILLIAMS.
2. HON. ARCHIE DIXON.
3. HON. FRANCIS M. BRISTOW.
4. HON. JOSHUA F. BELL.
5. HON. C. A. WICKLIFFE.
6. MAJ. GEO. W. DUNLAP.

9. GEN. JOHN E. HUSTON.
10. COL. ROBERT RICHARDSON.

The Union Democracy.

On Wednesday night the members of the Legislature—who are opposed to disunion, who are in favor of the Crittenden amendments, and who love the glorious old flag of our great and glorious country—met, and by common consent, agreed to the ticket which we have at the head of our paper. The Union men are marshaled under the name of the UNION DEMOCRACY, which is composed of old patriotic Whigs and Democrats, who love their country and her institutions.

The platform of principles and the organization adopted by the meeting are unavowedly crowded out of this number of our paper on account of the Legislative reports. Our ticket is a glorious one, composed of gallant and able men, who will, during the short campaign, bear the flag of our country high above the stain of secessionism, and restore it the last Saturday in May to the hands of those who confided it to their keeping.

Trot out your disunion nags.

NEW SPURIOUS $10 BILL.—The St. Louis Democrat says that a base $10 bill on the Citizens' Bank of Louisiana, New Orleans, made its appearance in that city Tuesday. The artificers have obtained and used an old genuine plate. The bill is thus described: Figures 10 in each corner; in the middle a ship, and a seaman lying down, with an anchor in rear; underneath the vignette is an X; and "Dix," in the lower left corner is a portrait of Washington, and on the right is one of a woman. As the plate is genuine the bill may deceive critical judges, if unaware of its existence.

SERIOUS FRACAS—MAN STABBED.—On Monday afternoon last, two men, named Wm. Collins and Jack Thomas, got into an altercation about politics, in Barkerstown, a few miles from the Kentucky Central Railroad, and six or seven miles from Covington, when Thomas drew from his pocket a dirk knife and stabbed Collins severely in the neck. Thomas then made his escape before he could be arrested, but an officer is in pursuit of him.

The Harrodsburg Press, a Democratic paper, has this paragraph: "The Hon. John L. Helm, is spoken of as a candidate for Congress in this district. If Mr. Helm wants to go to Congress from this district, he must talk better for the Union than he has done of late. Up here in Mercer we have got about fifteen hundred majority to give to the best Union man in the field."

The telegraph gives a dispatch received by the New York Day Book, stating that Major Anderson's supplies had been cut off, and Gen. Beauregard was hourly expecting orders to commence hostilities. It is, no doubt, a sensation affair, got up for that latitude.

A poor woman deserted her little children, seven in number, at the Newport (Ky.) wharf a few days ago. While unattended one of the children fell into the river and was drowned. The cruel mother cannot be found.

WHEAT CROP IN INDIANA.—Our exchanges from Indiana speak most encouragingly of the growing wheat crop in that State, and express a confidence that the fruit crop will be an abundant one.

The number of soldiers now stationed at the Newport, Ky., Barracks is two hundred and eighty, and the most thorough discipline is practiced daily.

There was another accident on the Pennsylvania railroad, Wednesday, by which a portion of the mail for the West was injured.

A Good Institution.

The people of Nashville, in their little frays, not being in the habit of shooting to hit, a patriotic individual offered his services through the papers, to teach them how to do the thing to better effect. He says:

"In consequence of some very wild shooting recently done in our city, like Bowers has opened a pistol gallery on the corner of Cedar and Cherry streets, third floor, where those who anticipate little amusements of that kind can have an opportunity of learning that after a very little practice you can 'wing' your man every time. Open this evening."

THE TARIFF SYSTEM.—We learn that one of our citizens paid twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents on seventy-two chickens and twenty-four turkeys, the other day. Guess we'll go into "army regulations," and put up with pork and beans. What will they collect duty on next?—Vicksburg Whig.

The Cincinnati journals publish the following letter from Mr. Crittenden:

FRANKFORT, Friday, March 29.
Lars Anderson, Esq., Cincinnati:
I observe that one of your respectable newspapers in Cincinnati has misstated my motives, and my course in relation to the resolution which I submitted on the 13th of December last to the Senate of the United States. It represents me as having "repudiated" them, and as having been "disgusted" with them, after, by an amendment, they had been made to embrace all territory hereafter acquired by the United States, as well as that which they now possessed. A simple statement will correct these errors.

These resolutions were proposed in the pure spirit of compromise, and with the hope of preserving or restoring to the country peace and union. They were the result of the joint labors of, and consultations with, friends having the same object in view, and I believe if those measures thus offered had been, at a suitable time, promptly adopted by the Congress of the United States, it would have checked the progress of the rebellion and revolution, and saved the Union.

For myself, I had no objection to including in their scope all after acquired territory, because that made a final settlement of the distracting question of slavery in all time to come, and because I hoped that such a provision, by prohibiting slavery in all after acquired territory north of the line of 36 deg. 30 m. of north latitude, and allowing it in all south of that line, would have the effect of preventing any further acquisition of territory, as the northern States would be unwilling to make any southern acquisitions on which slavery was to be allowed, and the southern States would not be inclined to increase the preponderance of the North by northern acquisitions. And thus I hoped that the provisions respecting future territory would prevent any further acquisitions of territory, and I did not desire that any more should be made.

These were my reasons for submitting the proposition in relation to future-acquired territory. But my great object was compromise—compromise on terms satisfactory, as far as possible, to all parties, and all sections, and when I found that this provision in my resolutions was much and particularly objected to, and might prove an obstacle to their adoption, I determined, in my anxiety for a compromise, that I would not insist upon it, but would consent to have it stricken out.

To accomplish the great object I had in view, the peace and union of the country, I would, rather than have witnessed their total failure, have yielded to any modification of my resolutions that would not, in my judgment, have destroyed their essential character and their pacifying effect. Indeed, I intended, if the opportunity had been afforded me, of making several amendments in the phraseology of those resolutions, in order to render their language as little offensive as possible.

I wished to see reconciliation and union established. It was of no importance by whose resolutions or by whose measures it was brought about, so that the great end was accomplished.

It was in that spirit that when the Peace Conference or Convention, that met at Washington on the invitation of the State of Virginia, made a report to Congress of the resolutions or measures recommended by them for the restoration of peace and union, I at once determined to support their measures, rather than those I had before proposed. I did this not only because their propositions contained, as I thought, the substance of my own, but because they came with the high sanction of the Convention of twenty-one States, and would, therefore, be more likely to be acceptable to Congress and the country. Besides that, I felt myself somewhat bound to act with this deference to a convention so distinguished. I had ascertained, to my satisfaction, that the resolutions I had offered would not be adopted in the Senate.

From this hastily written statement you will discover the motives of my conduct in all the above-mentioned transactions, and that I did not so act either because I was "disgusted" with or had ever "repudiated" the resolutions which I submitted to the Senate.

I am, very respectfully, yours, &c.,

J. J. CRITTENDEN.

DEATH OF JOSEPH RHEA.—We have already stated that Mr. Joseph Rhea, of this county, was killed by a falling tree during the storm of Friday. The Shelby News says that he was the son-in-law of Mr. John Linzenfelter, of Shelbyville. Mr. Rhea, when returning from church, stopped at Mr. Russell's on business, and started home about sun-down, through a dense woods, and was found next morning under a tree—having been killed, to all appearances, instantaneously. His funeral was preached at Cane Run Church, by Rev. D. T. Stuart, on Sabbath, to a very large congregation, and he was then buried with Masonic honors. Mr. Rhea was about forty-three years of age, a Ruling Elder in the Presbyterian church, and a man highly esteemed for his industry, good sense, and Christian character. His loss is deeply deplored, not only by his immediate family, but by the community at large, and especially by the church of which he was a worthy Ruling Elder. He has left a wife and three children.

CHICAGO, April 3.
A colored man named Harris, his wife and two children, were arrested this morning on a warrant issued by U. S. Commissioner Corneau and sent by special train to Springfield, where they will be examined to-morrow. The man is claimed by Mr. Patterson, of St. Louis county, Mo., and the woman and children by Mr. Vail of the same county, from whence they escaped three weeks since. As it was almost entirely unknown that warrants were issued, they were executed with little difficulty, but after the affair became known the most intense excitement prevailed among the colored portion of the community. Large numbers gathered at the depot at the time the regular morning train left, supposing the fugitives to be aboard. One or two shots were fired at the train, but beyond this, there was no disturbance.

CHARLESTON, April 3.
The following is a special despatch to the New York Day Book:
"The crisis has at last arrived. Provisions to Major Anderson were stopped to-day. General Beauregard is now inspecting the fortifications. Orders from Montgomery for the commencement of hostilities are hourly expected. The preparations are all complete."

NEW YORK, April 3.
The Commercial's Washington despatch states that a meeting of the Cabinet, attended by General Scott, was hastily summoned this morning. Capt. Fox has arrived from Fort Sumpter. It is thought that the consultation is in reference to reinforcing Anderson. There is considerable excitement here. A special messenger on the Alexandria and Orange railroad has been tarred and feathered because he was a Republican.

PROVIDENCE, April 3.
The election to-day resulted in the defeat of the Republican candidate for Governor. Sprague was re-elected by a large majority. The Legislature is of the same political complexion. Sheffield and Brown are elected to Congress over the late Republican members.

The cotton crop for 1860-61 will fall short 1,000,000 bales.

A Warm Bath Wager.

Smith was a man who never permitted himself to be out-done; he could do whatever anybody else could. Smith met Brown in a bath-room, and Brown, knowing the other's peculiar conceit, said that he (Brown) could endure a hotter bath than any living man. Thereat Smith fired up and a bet was made. Two bathing-tubs were prepared, with six inches of water in each. The fellows stripped, and, separated by a cloth partition, each one got in and let on the hot water at the word—the wager being who should stay in the longest with the hot water running.

Smith drew up his feet as far as possible from the boiling stream, while Brown pulled out the plug in the bottom of his tub. After about half a minute, quoth Smith:

"How is it, Brown—pretty warm?"

"Yes," said the other; "it's gitting almighty hot, but I guess I can hold out a minute yet."

"So can I," answered Smith. "Scissors!—squash!—lightning—it's awful!"

Fifteen seconds, equal to half an hour by Smith's imaginary watch.

"I say, over there—how is it now?"

"O, it's nearly up to the bill!"—O Christopher!" answered the diabolical villain, who was lying in the empty tub, while the hot water passed out of the escape pipe. By this time Smith was splurging about like a boiled lobster, and called out again:

"I say, over there—how is it now?"

"Hot as the Devil!" replied Brown; "but—where!—scissors!—guess I can hold out another minute!"

"The hell's fire you can!" shrieked the now boiling Smith, who rolled out and bolted through the partition, expecting to find the other quite choked.

"You infernal rascal! why didn't you put the plug in?"

"Why I didn't agree to!" said the imperious joker; "why'n't thunder didn't you leave yours out?"

[From the St. Louis Republican, of the 1st.]

Crittenden and the Black Republicans—Patriotism Against Sectionalism.

"The Chicago platform, a thing no bigger than my hand, to be set up like an idol of old, and worshipped, and a great country like ours, with all its millions sacrificed upon its altars."

So spoke the gray-haired Crittenden to the men of Kentucky, and how weighty and pertinent and timely, in and to the struggle of to-day, comes this sharp and blistering reproof of Black Republicanism from the lips of that old and honored servant of the Republic. Distinguished for his conservatism, his moderation, wisdom, and patriotism of his counsels—painful, indeed, must have been his conviction of the intractable and aggressive character of Black Republicanism, and of the destructive career upon which it has entered, to have wrung from him these hot and scalding utterances.

But does not every reflecting man in St. Louis, not bound by clamps of steel to this fanatical crusade against slavery, feel that it is time to sacrifice petty sectionalism to a broad and comprehensive patriotism—to ignore all narrow and partisan views of policy, before that majestic devotion to the weal of the Republic which illustrates a high souled patriot.

Men of St. Louis! you are to meet to-day, in the grapple of the ballot box, those who would have the Chicago platform supplant the Constitution of our fathers. Let us uphold and vindicate the time-honored charter of our liberties!

SPEECH BY GOV. HOUSTON.—The Austin correspondent of the Galveston News, under date of the 21st, writes:

While I am writing Gen. Houston has just delivered a speech by the side of the Baptist church. He commenced at half past eleven, and continued, as I learn, till half-past one, making two hours, and was then followed by Jack Hamilton, who is now speaking at 2 P. M. A gentleman just now informs me that Gen. Houston's speech is denunciatory of the Convention from beginning to end. He predicts that Jeff. Davis will enact in the South the coup d'etat of Louis Napoleon in France. But I must defer any notice of Houston's and Hamilton's speeches to my next, as the mail is now closing.

FOGOTIVE SLAVE REMANDED.—A colored man named George Lee was arrested at the Southgate Hotel by U. S. Marshal Sifford, yesterday, on the charge of being an escaped slave from Clarkburg, Virginia. He was taken without opposition before Commissioner Newhall, and on the testimony of Mr. Bartlett, of Covington, and two sons of the claimant, he was remanded to slavery. It appears from the testimony that George Lee was hired by his master, David Morrison, who resides near Clarkburg, Virginia, to a relative in St. Louis, about two years ago. From thence he escaped soon after, and made his way to this city, where he obtained employment as porter at the hotel named above. Lee is about twenty-five years of age, intelligent and active, though somewhat lame. He was lodged in the Covington jail last evening, and will be taken back to Clarkburg to-day.

WINE AND COBWEBS.—An acquaintance of an exchange happening into the wine-cellar of one of our large liquor dealers, the other day, found boys employed in enveloping bottles of wine with cobwebs, so as to convince the customers that their wines were old, from the webs which had accumulated upon the bottles. This is the last way of ageing wine which has come to our knowledge. It goes far ahead of the old plan of smoking the labels upon the bottles.

All kinds of Headache

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack, immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject. They act gently upon the bowels—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alternative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alternative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proved by experience in many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

SCHROFUL AND SCORBUIC COMPLAINTS,
ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TRODOLOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPERSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many ranking disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruption, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alternative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and are longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this purgation of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug is not the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they contain only a small quantity of Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irrepressible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR THE CURE OF
Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetters, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best purgative in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price 25 cents per Box; Five boxes for $1.00.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen and eminent laymen, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given, with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with cheap preparations that make no profit on Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and Benefit and Health to your Infants.

We have just put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know" after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER-FAILING SUCCESS in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPE in he Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY for the world in ALL CASES OF DYSENTERY AND DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE, yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE, to follow this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.
